DIRECTOR'S NOTE

This show is written and performed by the students. This is their understanding and contribution in response to what is happening in our social climate today. The students have made a profound investigation on the subjects of race, discrimination, police ethics, sexism, depression and self-care. Their in-depth investigation, along with the talents of singing, design, playing instruments and writing music, have resulted in this show. This is the voice of their generation.

PRODUCTION STAFF

Tech Lead Christopher Paci | Virtual House Manager Els Collins

BIOGRAPHY

Julián Juaquín Conde has cultivated his art of acting studying at the Stella Adler studio in New York and at the Labyrinth Company. He received his Masters Degree in Fine Arts at the University of Southern California. He worked on the 2019 Stage Raw Award-winning production of How We Are Different From Animals, which was directed by Jonathan Muñoz-Proulx. Julián made an appearance on NBC's new show, Stumptown, working with Jake Johnson.
